(April 14, 2005- TROY)- Despite vandalism costing the City thousands of dollars last week, the City of Troy will open Frear Park Golf Course on time FRIDAY morning at 8:30 a.m.

Mayor Harry J Tutunjian will open the golf course with the inaugural drive at 8:30 a.m. and the course will officially be open for business.

"I'm just going to try and hit it straight," Tutunjian said. "We're expecting great things at Frear Park this year. We have a new restaurant, improved equipment and upkeep, and excellent word of mouth that Frear Park is a great place to play."

Earlier this week the Frear Park Conservancy added $250 to Tutunjian's $500 reward for the arrest and conviction of those damaging the course last Thursday, bringing the total to $750. Any information on the vandalism should be turned over to the Troy Police.

All members of the media are encouraged to attend the annual mayoral tee-off at 8:30 a.m.
